

Talk To Your Doctor: Learning About a Clinical Trial

Below are some questions you may want to ask when discussing a clinical trial with your doctor. Bring this worksheet with you so you can fill in the answers. Gathering this information may help you decide whether joining a clinical trial is right for you. Learn more at www.imaginemyMG.com

What is the main purpose of this trial?

Is there a new medicine in this study that has not been approved yet?

If so, what is already known about this medicine?

What are the possible risks to me if I participate in this trial?

What are the possible benefits to me if I participate in this trial?

Who will cover the costs for me to be in a trial?

What will be expected of me if I choose to participate? What will I need to do?
